Complete Plan for Emergency Supply of Water for City

To Pipe from Mine Site in Pankeyville Area

Expect Delivery of 12,750 Feet of Pipe in Week or 10 Days

A plan for temporary or emergency replenishment of Harrisburg's rapidly diminishing water supply, was completed at Monday night's meeting of the Harrisburg Water Board.

After several possibilities were discussed, it was decided that the best supply of water could be obtained from the old Indian Head mine site, in the Pankeyville area. A sample of water from this site was tested Monday by officials of the state health department and their report is that the water "is fit for human consumption — not desirable — but usable."

The water will have to be pumped 12,750 feet and an order for that amount of pipe was placed this morning. Delivery of the pipe is expected in a week to 10 days.

Buying of this pipe will not be an extra expense to the city as it can be used in expansion of the water system when proposed Lake Harrisburg becomes a reality.

CIPS To Build Power Line
In the $200,000 bond issue proposed for building the lake and improving the system was an item for the purchase of pipe and the pipe purchased for use during the present emergency will be used at a later date.

It is proposed to lay the pipe overland, coming into Harrisburg along the old Number 4 railroad spur, then along Highway 45 to near the 45th gate, then crossing the highway and extending northward across Church, Poplar, Locust and Walnut streets and on to the plant.

To get the plan into operation it will be necessary to have an electric power line built to the pumping site. Approximately 1,100 feet of line will be built by the C. I. P. S. and the cost to the city will be only $800. Wm. J. Hopkins, local C. I. P. S. manager, stated, "The city will not be charged for any material that is salvagable after the line is no longer needed, you will only pay for labor costs and material that cannot be salvaged." Mr. Hopkins told the board members. He stated the line would be ready by the time it was needed.

To Use All in Reservoirs
Approximately 900,000 gallons of water can be added to the local supply each 24 hours by the pumping method planned, it was stated.

Meanwhile, efforts are being made to use every available bit of water in the city and CIPS reservoirs. Pumping from the city's reservoir was finished several weeks ago, and water is now being

THIS IS HARRISBURG'S WATER SUPPLY—The extremely critical water situation in Harrisburg is graphically shown in these two pictures. Above is the city's portion of the reservoir. The pipe to the pumping station is shown leading into the small supply. The water is so low this pump line will not operate, and an auxiliary pump, shown in the picture, has been installed to pump the remaining water over into the CIPS reservoir, where it may be removed for city use. The auxiliary pump motor has burned out and is being repaired.

Below, the CIPS reservoir, from which water is being used, is pictured. Water in the borrow pit from which the levee was thrown up to form the original reservoir is all that is available. These pictures were taken near the pumping station at the eastern side of the two reservoirs, where they are bisected by the road to the pumping station. (Register Staff Photos)

Asks Council For Action on Water Petition

The council of the city of Harrisburg this morning held up any comment, pending legal advice, on a petition presented several weeks ago requesting an election be held before any major improvements in the Harrisburg water system.

Atty. Lester R. Lightfoot, representing the petitioners, was at the meeting and brought up the matter of the petition he presented the council several weeks ago, prior to the passage of the bond ordinance to create an ample water supply on Dec. 23.

Lightfoot said that the petition contained 800-odd names and that since that many names were on the petition, the lake proposition should be presented for a vote.

Upon questioning by Mayor Horning, who said that there would be no action until the council could be advised by City Attorney Scerrial Thompson, who is ill, Lightfoot pointed out that the petition was not a mandatory petition, that it was not legal in that it strikes at any particular ordinance, but that it is merely a request that the council present any major water propositions to the voters.

Horning said he had been informed by several who signed the petition that they didn't know what they were signing when it was presented to them. He said, also, several men had told him that

JOHN VANDERPLUYM, who has been added to the faculty at the Harrisburg Township high school to teach driver's training, driver's education, a class in physical education and be freshman basketball coach. He is a former HTHS athlete and honor student and was graduated from Southern Illinois university last June.

Lightfoot persisted in asking for the attitude of the council on the petition but was told the matter would have to be held up until the advice of the city attorney could be secured.

The council this morning also allowed current bills, and accepted the report of Police Magistrate Charles McKenzie.

J. E. Raibourn, 85, Eldorado Resident, Dies in Florida

James E. Raibourn, 85, well known resident of Eldorado, died Sunday night in Florida where he and his wife had gone to spend the winter with their son Claude who lives near Bradenton.

Contractor Tells Of Attempt at Labor Extortion

Testifies at Trial Of AFL Building Union Representative

ST. LOUIS (UP)—A Los Angeles housing contractor faced further cross-examination today after testifying that a local AFL official attempted to extort $50,000 from him to guarantee labor peace.

The contractor, M. H. Carpenter, who developed a large housing project in northern St. Louis County, was the first witness in the trial of Paul H. Hulahan on labor racketeering charges, which opened in Federal Court Monday.

Hulahan, business representative of the AFL Building Laborers Union, Local 42, is the first of 17 indicted AFL officials to be tried on racketeering charges. He was named in an eight-count indictment, which included charges of extorting a total of $2,000 from two other firms here.

Carpenter testified that in March, 1951, Hulahan and a business agent of another building laborers local demanded a $2,000 down payment and $2,000 each a month for one year to "see that you don't have any trouble."

The alleged co-conspirator, Joseph F. Gribler, business agent of Local 110 of the union, since has been murdered in gangland fashion.

Approached Twice

The two labor leaders, Carpenter continued, told him "it is the custom here" for contractors to pay off for labor harmony.

Gribler approached him twice before the alleged shakedown attempts, Carpenter testified. The first time he said Gribler sought to borrow money from him and became angry when he refused. About two weeks later, Carpenter added, Gribler returned and threatened to close down the job because he "saw a carpenter carrying a board, which is against the rules."

The contractor said he hired an attorney, Selden Blumenfeld, to talk to Hulahan. After Blumenfeld met with Hulahan, Carpenter said he never heard from the labor boss again and did not pay the $50,000.

Carpenter testified under cross examination that the only work stoppage on his housing project occurred when Gribler held up operations about 30 minutes when he complained of violation of working regulations.

President Assures People Gov't Will Use Every Means To Sustain Prosperity

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower gave the American people his assurance Monday night that the government will use "every legitimate means" to sustain the nation's prosperity against any threat of recession or depression.

But he voiced a "persistent and reasoned faith" in the basic soundness of the economy and sternly rebuked the "self-appointed peddlers of gloom and doom."

Mr. Eisenhower launched his sharp counterattack against "boom and bust" fears Monday night in a nationwide radio-television report on his administration's accomplishments and plans on the eve of the second session of the 83rd Congress.

Democrats generally applauded his pledge to act promptly in case of a recession. They asserted, however, that his plan of action is borrowed from the Democrats. Some suggested that he should start moving now since a recession is already here.

Adjustments Required

"It is very good to know," said Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas, "that the administration has adopted what has always been a basic feature of Democratic policy—the belief that our people need not suffer from a boom and bust America."

Republicans warmly praised the address and predicted that the principles the President outlined would be followed by specific recommendations which Americans would approve.

Mr. Eisenhower acknowledged that "changing circumstances"—including the end of the Korean War and declining defense production—require economic adjustments. But he said these can be made "without encouraging disaster or without bringing about the economic chaos for which the Communists hope."

He did not spell out the "legitimate" means he would employ to meet a recession threat. But he did say the administration would not be indifferent to those in adversity "through no fault of their own."

Reunited With Wife

"I think Tennessee wrote the letter himself," Batchelor said. He said also that Burchett, correspondent for the Paris L'Humanite, and Alan Winnington, correspondent for the London Daily Worker, helped turn him against the United States while he was in a North Korean camp.

Batchelor, now reunited with his Japanese wife, refused to give details about "worsening conditions" in the Indian-controlled north camp until he sees the mothers of the 21 prisoners who have refused repatriation.

He did not say whether he had promised the prisoners to see their parents or give any other indication that the Americans knew beforehand that he planned to desert the Reds.

Batchelor admitted he attended Red indoctrination lectures while he was held prisoner in North Korea and said that although he was "just playing along with the Chinese" at the beginning he finally began to believe their anti-American propaganda.

"I am sorry for it now," he said.

Printing Office Money Found On Virginia Farm

8,000 New $20 Bills Stolen from Government Plant

WASHINGTON (UP)—The bulk of the $160,000 stolen from the heavily guarded U. S. Bureau of Engraving and Printing has been recovered on a Virginia farm and an arrest in the case is expected soon, officials said today.

Virginia state police said the money was found in a metal tool box on a farm near Centerville, Va.

Part of the money already had been spent, officials said. Two of the 8,000 crisp new $20 bills turned up in Washington today.

A high Secret Service official said he expected a "break" in the case soon. Other sources said the arrest of a bureau employee was believed to be imminent.

Secret Service Chief U. E. Baughman had "no comment" on the reports, but would not deny them. He indicated he might have an announcement later today.

Lie Detector Tests
"We have to work fast," Baughman added.

It was the biggest theft in the history of the sprawling engraving plant where all U. S. paper money is produced.

Recovery of the missing bills was reported as Secret Service agents prepared lie detector tests for bureau employees who might have had opportunity to carry out the bold theft.

One of the crisp new $20 bills was found by Isaac Jacobson, president of the National Produce Co., as he was checking receipts. It caught his eye because of the high serial number.

Jacobson said he received the bill from a small grocery in Takoma Park, Md. The Takoma Park grocer said he got it from one of his customers—whom he apparently identified to Secret Service agents.

The bill's serial number was B90255924A, one of those in the stolen batch.

The Secret Service refused to say where the other bill cropped up. But a high Secret Service official said:

"I think there may be a break soon."

Federal Reserve Bank Notes
Bureau officials had thought it possible that the $160,000 might somehow have been misplaced. But a night-long search of every nook and cranny of the huge engraving building, plus discovery of the passed bills, proved the money had been stolen.

The Secret Service broadcast a description of the missing money throughout the nation, and enlisted the support of all banks and other financial institutions in watching out for them.

The $20 bills are federal reserve bank notes, drawn on the New York Federal Reserve Bank. They bear the numeral "20" and the capital letter "B" in the left hand corner.

Their serial numbers run from B90236001A through B90240000A, and from B90252001A through B90256000A.

Any person spotting a $20 bill with such a serial number should notify the Secret Service immediately.

The $160,000 in two wrapped packets of 4,000 $20 bills each, was discovered missing from the

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Ike Has Radical Proposal For Increasing Old-Age Pensions; Dan Reed's White House Relations Are On The Rocks; Trouble Looms Over McCarthy's Man On Federal Communications Commission.

WASHINGTON. — President Eisenhower definitely plans to move to the left in his forthcoming state of the union message by proposing a ten-dollar across-the-board monthly increase in old-age pensions. The move should win Democratic support but will bring a howl from some of his own right-wing party members, particularly Congressman Carl Curtis of Nebraska and the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

Details of the pension increase have not been worked out, but in a general way the $10 will be paid for by broadening the taxpayer's salary base. At present, 1.1-2 per cent is deducted from each salary up to $3,600 annually. Above $3, 600 there is no deduction. It's now proposed to increase the $3,600 limit to $4,600 or $4,800. From this larger salary there would be payroll deductions, but not beyond.
Ike also proposes to drop the increased social-security deduc-tion from payrolls, which went into effect automatically on January 1. Administration leaders are extremely anxious to get rid of this added payroll deduction, since among lower-bracket taxpayers it would offset the automatic 10 per cent income-tax decrease.

Many Republican congressmen are muttering that a $10 increase in old-age pensions is reminiscent of New Deal, ham-and-egg, pie-in-the-sky days. Fact is, however, that, with increased prices, U. S. oldsters have a hard time making both ends meet.

GRUMPY UNCLE DAN

Relations between the White House and grumpy Congressman
"Uncle Dan" Reed of Dunkirk, N.
Y., chairman of the tax-writing Ways and Means committee, are drifting from bad to worse.

First, Uncle Dan took a walkout on the White House legislative conferences just before Christmas.
Now the White House is taking a walkout on Uncle Dan.

When Reed was invited to the three-day sessions attended only by GOP leaders to shape the legislative program, he sailed off on a cruise to Panama. Privately, he told friends his committee had decided on what kind of tax bill to write, and he didn't need to have any White House advice.

Understandably, the White House was sore. So when Ike's aides made up the list of both Democrats and Republicans to be invited to the bipartisan White House meeting tomorrow (Jan. 5), Reed's name was omitted. (He didn't want to be stood up twice.)

The 78-year-old congressional prima donna, however, may have the last laugh. For, in addition to taxes, Reed's committee holds the key to the new social-security law and the reciprocal-trade program. It's almost impossible for Ike to move without him.

MCCARTHY'S MAN FRIDAY

Some Ike advisers want the President to withdraw the name of Robert E. Lee from the Federal Communications Commission and thereby avoid a nasty knockdown fight with the Democrats. The latter are sore over Lee's appointment after they had shown up his activities for Senator McCarthy in the Maryland election. They believe they can defeat Lee's confirmation in the Senate.

On the other hand, assistant president Sherman Adams thinks Ike has to go through with the Lee appointment even if it means that the Democrats finally defeat his confirmation.

Adams confides that a deal was made—only he calls it by the more highfalutin term of "quid pro quo."
Anyway, the deal—or whatever you want to call it—was with Sen.
Styles Bridges of New Hampshire and Congressman John Taber of New York, powerful chairmen of the Senate and House Appropriations committees. They wanted Lee, who was working with Taber's committee, appointed comptroller general of the United States.

This is one of the most important posts in the entire U. S. government. The appointment is for a 14-year term, nonremovable by the President, and it's the job of the comptroller general to scrutinize all government expenditures.
He is the watchdog of the Treasury.

SENATORS ARE SORE

The post is now held by able old Lindsay Warren of North Carolina, who has saved the taxpayers millions. Warren, not in good health, is not averse to resigning, but balked at the idea of seeing a Mc-Carthy man, who had been under fire in a Senate investigation, take his place. He wanted his career assistant, able Frank Weitzel, to succeed him.

So, to appease Senator Bridges and Congressman Taber, the White House appointed Robert E. Lee to the Federal Communications Commission.

"It was a case where we thought he would be less dangerous over there," Adams explained to a friend.

UNDER THE DOME

Senate Democrats will caucus on three issues as Congress convenes:
Strategy on the confirmation fight against FCC Commissioner Robert E. Lee, alleged illegal firing of postmasters with "civil-service status"; and increase in the number of Democrats on Senate committees, now that the Dems have a majority in the Senate. . . . potent Sen. Dick Russell of Georgia can get his view of U. S. military strategy if he wants it. Senator Saltonstall of Massachusetts, GOP chairman of the Armed Services committee, has been blocking the review, but Russell has the votes if he wants to push his probe.

Dorothy di Frasso, who died of a she returned from a party staged

She was 66.
Actor Clifton Webb, accompa-when he went to awaken her as the Union Pacific train approached Los Angeles Monday. She was lying in her roomette, covered by her mink coat and wearing $250,000

"She had gone to Las Vegas

Miss Jimella Vaughn, A-2C Richard Webb Wed at Gaskins City Baptist Church

A-2C and Mrs. Richard Webb

Before an altar beautifully decorated with baskets of white gladioli and branched candelabra Miss Jimella Vaughn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Vaughn, 104 Michigan street, became the bride of A-2C Richard Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Webb, Route 3, Harrisburg. The impressive double ceremony was performed Dec. 20 at 5 p. m. by the Rev. Roy Reynolds in the Gaskins City Baptist church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white two-piece tulle dress with navy blue accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a small bouquet of white roses.

The bride chose as her maid of honor, Mrs. Denzil Perkins, who wore a tan dress with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow baby chrysanthemums.

Denzil Perkins, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man, and Robert Aldridge, Harrisburg, and Bill York, Seymour, Ind., brothers-in-law of the bride, served as ushers.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Aldridge, 1221 South Roosevelt street, brother-in-law and sister of the bride. The table was decorated with a lovely three-tiered wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, a punch bowl and Christmas greens. Mrs. Lawrence Logsdon, sister of the bride, and Miss Dewar Martin, niece of the bride, served as hostesses.

The bride is a graduate of the Harrisburg Township high school in the class of 1953, and the bridegroom is a graduate of 1952, and attended S. I. U. before entering military service.

The couple will reside at 127 South Joe street, Rapid City, S. Dakota, where he is currently stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards visited over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Gibbons, 1114 South McKinley. They returned to Maywood Sunday evening where Mr. Edwards starts back to work this week at Borg-Warner, Inc., after returning from army service. Mrs. Edwards was formerly Martha Ann Gibbons and she is employed as a secretary at Alcoa Aluminum near Chicago.

Little Janice Pankey returned to her home in Rosiclare after spending the holidays with her aunt, Mrs. J. L. Pankey, in Dorris Heights.

Dr. and Mrs. L. I. Webb returned to Harrisburg Monday night following a two weeks vacation. They visited with their daughter, Miss Barbara Webb, in Walnut Creek, Calif., which is near San Francisco, and also visited in Hawaii. While in Hawaii they visited with Miss Dorothy Durham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Durham. The Webbs made the entire trip by air. Dr. Webb's dental office, which was closed during his absence, is now open.

Mrs. Raymond Barnett returned last week end from Jefferson City, Mo., where she spent the Christmas and New Year holidays with her son, Dr. Jack E. Barnett, and family.

GOP, Demo Leaders Preview Defense, Foreign Programs

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower today gave Democratic and Republican congressional leaders a preview of the defense, foreign policy and foreign aid sections of his forthcoming State of the Union message to Congress.

The White House said after the 2 1/2 hour conference that the legislative leaders were given an outline of the foreign military, economic and technical aid program which will be presented to Congress. No figures were mentioned.

The bi-partisan conference also heard special reports from Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and Harold E. Stassen, director of the Foreign Operations Administration.

Afterwards, the President was host to the group at lunch.

For the first time, Mr. Eisenhower called Democratic as well as GOP leaders to the White House in a frank bid for Democratic support for his foreign aid and defense policies.

Insiders reported he is determined to fight if necessary to put his 1954 program across.

Finds Grasshopper In Can of Turnip Greens, Asks $3000

MARION, Ill. — A grasshopper in a turnip field can be harmless but when the insect appears in a can of turnip greens it can be downright upsetting. Mrs. Beulah Burks is suing the Kroger Co. for $3,000 damages because a grasshopper in a can of turnip greens caused her to become "disordered."

An attorney for the Herrin housewife filed suit in Circuit Court here Monday charging she bought the offending greens in a Kroger store in Herrin in August, 1952. While eating the greens, Mrs. Burks discovered a "foreign object" and removed from her mouth one-half of a grasshopper. The suit said Mrs. Burks "became sick and disordered" as a result of the experience and seeks damages to compensate for her resulting illness.

In Less Than 7 Years
ST. JOSEPH D'ALMA, Que. (AP) — Paul-Emile Tremblay, 29, was in need of two things today after his wife gave birth to her sixth set of twins in less than seven years — a job and a larger house.

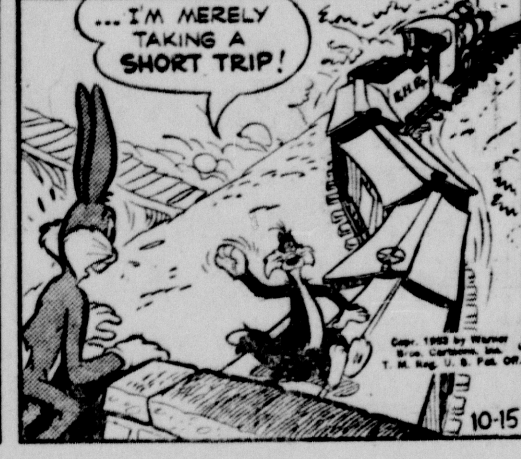

The babies were the 12th and 13th children born to Mrs. Rosa Tremblay and her unemployed husband since they were married May 1, 1946. The couple had a "single" in 1950.

Dr. Joseph A. Bergeron delivered the babies, a boy and a girl, Monday in the Tremblays' six-room frame house at Ile d'Alma near here. He said the mother and twins were fine.

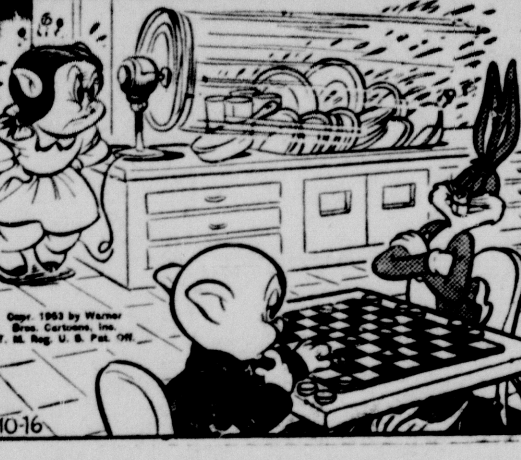

Neighbors immediately pitched in to make the mother and infants comfortable and cared for the Tremblays' other children.

Mrs. Tremblay had her first set of twins Feb. 18, 1947.

Drill Sergeant Tactics Charge Hurlled at Dulles

NEW YORK (U.P.)—William Clark, ousted chief justice of United States courts in Germany, today accused Secretary of State John Foster Dulles of having a "drill sergeant mentality."

Clark said the State Department was "lying in its teeth" when it denied his diplomatic passport had been forcibly seized on Dulles' order.

The 62-year-old jurist arrived on the liner Queen Mary. Although his four-year judicial term in West Germany was scheduled to expire next Friday, he defied a State Department order on Nov. 25 relieving him from his job.

The wealthy Princeton, N. J., judge said when he was relieved that he would stay on the job until the State Department proved formal charges against him.

The department thereupon suspended him, took his diplomatic passport, and gave him another one specifying that he take a direct route home.

To Consult Attorney

In a shipboard interview, Clark said that on State Department orders a "Franco police commissioner" forcibly took his passport while he was visiting the Canary Islands, thus depriving him of "freedom of movement." He said he would consult his attorney today on the possibility of bringing a mandamus action against Dulles to get another passport.

Clark said the root of his dispute with the State Department was his criticism of the U. S. high commissioner for allowing "the Germans to put American citizens in jail without trial and without bail—an old German custom."

He said his dismissal was "the most outrageous performance I've ever seen," and, in a prepared statement, added:

"I advise the secretary of state that the American people do not like the drill sergeant mentality, nor will they favor the treatment of a judge with 30 years' honorable service as a pfc. absent without leave."

Flood Waters Pound Northern Europe Seawalls

LONDON (U.P.)—Weather-wary lowlanders cleaned up the debris of one flood today and girded for what may be another more devastating one this weekend.

Towering waves posed a new threat to the seawalls of northern Europe which already had been battered by floodwaters churned up by a howling northwest.

Large areas were inundated on both sides of the Iron Curtain in Germany. Authorities were preparing for possible disaster when the tides surge even higher this weekend.

No flood casualties had been reported so far, but authorities feared another storm this week might cause floods like those which killed 1,700 persons at this time last year.

Off Cuxhaven, Germany, a Greek sea captain and six of his crew stubbornly fought to save their cracked and grounded tanker in the gale-churned North Sea today despite urgent warnings from five rescue vessels standing by that the tanker was going to sink.

While northern Europe cleared away flood debris, residents of the south and central sections of the continent were shivering in the grip of the winter's first big snow fall, which already has claimed 20 lives.

Floodwaters in Britain and Belgium had retreated today, and all but a few low-lying areas in Denmark were drying out. In the Netherlands, worst sufferer from last year's floods, the famed dikes so far had held out the surging waters.

THE ANGELS FELL

by Bruno Fischer

Copyright by Bruno Fischer, distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: A "bulging briefcase" is an important clue in the murder of District Attorney Barnett Larkin. Both the briefcase and Dina, Larkin's wife, are missing. Dina was last seen carrying the briefcase to the home of her ex-husband Paul Flagg, who is suspected of murdering Larkin. Paul did not commit the crime but he removed the body to protect both himself and his ex-wife. Paul has been asked to turn over the briefcase by Willie Shad, a gangster, who threatens to kidnap Joey, Paul's son. Paul said he'll kill Shad if anything happens to Joey.

XVIII
Willie Shad tried to simmer. He was now merely a thick-bodied bald man. "What got you sore? On account of what I said about your kid?"

"That's right," I said. "In war I killed men I didn't know or hate as individuals. How do you think I'd feel about you if you touched my son?" I leaned across the table, balancing the big gun in my hand. "I'll kill you if anything happens to him. I won't go to the police. I won't ask anybody for help. All your mugs won't stop me. I'll get to you and kill you."

"I was only kidding."
"Get out!" I said. "Get out before I kill you now to make sure!" Willie Shad moved quickly. His wide hips waddled. At the door he hesitated. "How's about seven grand?"

"Get out!"
The door opened and closed and Willie Shad was gone.
Joey burst in. I was aware of the gun still in my hand and plunged it into the shoebox and fumbled the lid on. Joey hadn't noticed it. His freckled face was vastly excited.

"Pop, is it true? Did Barney get shot?"
Ted Gallagher's frame bulked hugely in the doorway. "Paul I'm sorry. I thought you'd told him."
"Gosh! He was the district attorney. I bet gangsters he was chasing killed him," Joey said.
I put my hand on my son's head, and the hand trembled as much as before. His necktie was twisted to the side of his collar and his shirt was lapping over his still clean slacks. I was about to tell him to get out of his clothes when he said: "Where's the lady?"

"What lady?"
"The lady who came while you were buying the ball. I said you'd be right back and she came in here to wait for you."
"She must have left."
"That's her car outside," Joey said.

"Go out and play with Grace."
I went through the connecting door into the cellar. She was moving away from me, either toward the door at the other end leading directly out of the cellar, or planning to hide behind the coal bin.
"I feel perfectly ridiculous," Hannah Rahn said.
"Willie Shad is gone," I said.
"You can come in now."
I held the door and she went first.

She stood behind the armchair, one hand on the high back. "It's an awful feeling to be trapped," she said gaily. "I couldn't get out to pretend I'd gone for a walk while waiting for you. You were in here and the children would have seen me come out through the cellar door."
"Why are you afraid of Willie Shad?"
"Afraid? He's the most harmless—" She laughed lightly. "I saw him arrive and I guessed why. I was curious to hear how you would deal with him."
"I didn't deal with him."
"You certainly frightened him. I wouldn't have believed that Willie Shad could be so thoroughly frightened." She moved languidly over to the shoebox and lifted the lid. "It looks terrific."

Hannah Rahn covered the shoebox. She put her hands flat on the table—smooth, long-fingered hands with pink nails.
"What is it you want? More money?"
"I want to be let alone."
"Then why don't you let us alone?" she burst out. "Why do you keep on torturing us like this?"
Looking across the table at the intensity of her gray eyes, at the tautness of her cheeks, I knew why I hated her. Because I couldn't wipe out of my mind the kisses under the elm tree. Because after three years the feel of them was still on my mouth.

"I'd like to convince you that I haven't got it," I said quietly.
Outside Mrs. Gallagher exclaimed indignantly. "Grace, how can you say such a terrible thing?" and Grace whined. "Well, I heard it," and then Joey yelled, "Pop!" and the door flew open.
"Pop! Grace says Dina shot Barney. She's lying, isn't she?"
I put an arm about his shoulders. I should have told him right away. Told him something, anyway.
"Well—" It wasn't easy. "Joey, remember last night I told you

Report Marriage Plans This Week End By Marilyn Monroe and Joe DiMaggio

HOLLYWOOD — Glamour girl Marilyn Monroe and Joe DiMaggio were missing from their usual haunts today, and it was reported they plan to marry sometime this week.
In fact, a marriage ceremony was set for Monday at the Hotel El Rancho at Las Vegas but was suddenly cancelled, according to hotel owner Belden Kattelman.
Miss Monroe was suspended by her movie studio Monday when she failed to show up for work on a new picture, and her absence touched off the speculation that her two-year romance with the former baseball star was ready for the altar.
Some sources said Miss Monroe and DiMaggio had postponed the wedding Monday because of religious differences. DiMaggio is Catholic and Marilyn isn't. Both have been divorced.
Las Vegas sources said the best man for the wedding had journeyed to Las Vegas to make the nuptial plans but had since returned to Los Angeles.

The whereabouts of both the bosomy blonde and the onetime Yankee outfielder were a mystery as of early today. His sister in San Francisco said they left together on a motor trip, but were supposed to return to the Bay City tonight.
"They are not coming up here today, but they plan to be married later this week," friends of DiMaggio in Las Vegas said. "But they might change their plans now that the secret is out."
Twentieth-Century-Fox Studio announced that Marilyn failed to report for work on a musical, "Pink Tights." So the one-time bit player who rose to fame via a nude calendar pose was yanked off the payroll. Her dramatic coach, Natasha Lytess, said she couldn't believe Marilyn was becoming Mrs. DiMaggio.

Woman is Found Dead in Apartment; Admirer Hunted

CHICAGO (UP) — Police today tried to unravel the tangled amours of twice-wed Mrs. Ruby Berg after she was found nude in her apartment, a bullet in her brain.
Authorities pressed a search here and in Muncie, Ind., for an admirer who left a note saying "She's no good for me."
The suspect, Curtis King, 40, has not been seen since New Year's Day, and police believe he might have tried to visit his mother at Muncie.
A note found in his hotel room said "I know I can't get away with this," police said.
Homicide officers picked up Mrs. Berg's estranged second husband and questioned her first spouse, who found her body Monday.
The 36-year-old woman's body was clad only in hobby sox when she was discovered by the first husband, Albert O. Kaul, 58. Neighbors in her apartment building said they heard sounds of a violent struggle about 2 a. m. New Year's Day, and officers believe she died then at the hands of an unwelcome visitor.

She left a note addressed to a friend, June Bogner, and saying, "If anything happens to me, you know what to do."
Miss Bogner told police that Mrs. Berg had been keeping company with King for some time but was "afraid" of him. He is a foreman at a Ford Motor Co. plant where Mrs. Berg worked and had divorced his own wife, Edith, seven years ago.
Informations were filed yesterday in county court charging two men and a woman with writing fraudulent checks.
Charges were filed against John E. Elder of Eldorado, Ralph Woods of Harrisburg and Betty Boatright, living in Johnston City.

'54 FORD the "worth more" car declares a dividend

Here Tomorrow!

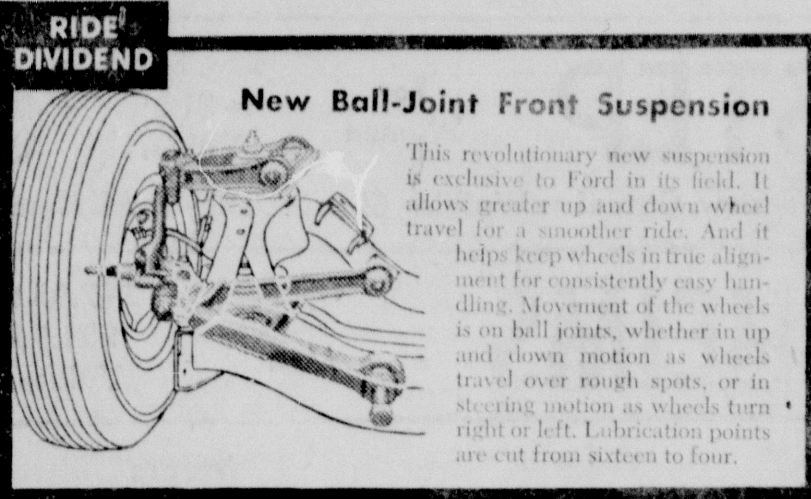

STYLE DIVIDEND

3 distinctive lines — 14 brilliant body styles

YOU JUST OUGHT TO TRY the '54 Ford... the car that brings a whole new set of value features to the low-price field. You'll find that each new feature is an extra dividend in driving enjoyment. And each new dividend establishes Ford, even more in '54, as the "Worth More" car.
You get a special dividend in styling, for example, with Ford's distinctive new appearance... smooth, clean lines. You get sparkling new interiors, too, that are a dividend in themselves. New custom-selected upholstery and trim are color-harmonized with your choice of glamorous new body colors. And Ford's new Astra-Dial Control Panel is not only the most beautiful you've ever seen... it's designed for safety, too, with the speedometer located high on the control panel, where it's more nearly in your line of sight.

And each of the new Fords gives you special dividends in ride and performance... with new Ball-Joint Front Suspension, the greatest advance in chassis design in 20 years... with your choice of Ford's new low-friction Y-block V-8 or I-block Six, the most modern engines in any car today! And, as an additional dividend, Ford makes available all the power assists you might expect to find only in the costliest cars.
With 28 brilliant new models to choose from, you'll find the exact car to suit your tastes and requirements. Come in and see the '54 Ford. Test Drive it. Once you try it, you'll want to drive it home.

Plus five optional power assists* you might find only in America's costliest cars

Master-Guide Power Steering
It does up to 75% of your steering work for you, when you need it... makes "tight spot" parking a pleasure. Yet it leaves you with the normal feel of steering on the straightaway.

Swift Sure Power Brakes
Power does up to one-third of the work of stopping your car for you! You are far less fatigued... much more relaxed in the stop and go driving of today's congested traffic.

Power-Lift Windows
Smooth, silent electric power opens or closes windows at the touch of a button. There's a master control on left front door beside driver plus an individual control under each power window.

4-Way Power Seat
You push one of two controls and the front seat goes up or down... push the other and it goes front or back. It's a real convenience when different-sized people have to drive the same car frequently.

Fordomatic Drive
Gives you the most versatile automatic shifting ever. You get the smoothness of a fluid torque converter, the "go" of an automatic intermediate gear. Ford also offers gas-saving Overdrive.

The greatest engine advances since the original FORD V-8

TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO Ford introduced to the low-price field a fine-quality precision-engineered V-8 engine. This basic design—soon to become famous throughout the world—quickly established a new standard of performance for low-priced cars. And now, with its 22 years' experience in building over 13,000,000 V-8s, it is only logical that Ford is first in its field to introduce a brand new type of V-8—the Y-block V-8... together with the most modern Six in the industry—the new and advanced I-block Six.

Both new 1954 Ford engines have overhead valves for most efficient high-compression operation on today's fuels. Valves are free-breathing to give you the most GO... free-turning to seat tightly and maintain high compression. Both engines have a deep-cast block with skirt that extends well below the crankshaft for greater strength and rigidity... smoother, quieter performance and extra-long engine life. Their modern short-stroke, low-friction design cuts friction losses... gives you more usable horsepower, more miles per gallon of gasoline. And new high-turbulence combustion chambers assure a more thorough mixing of fuel and air for faster, more efficient firing of fuel.

Plan to Test Drive a '54 Ford. You'll find these new Ford power plants stand out as the greatest engine advances since the original Ford V-8.

The Eldorado Eagles, in taking top honors in the four-team cage meet at Cairo over the weekend, were extremely consistent in the scoring field. In the opening game, against Metropolis, Eldorado scored 58 points, then came back with 57 in the title tilt against Anna.

In the first three quarters of the championship game the Eagles had 13 points in each quarter, the same number scored in the first quarter against Metropolis. The Eagles scored 15 points in each of the last three quarters against Metropolis. Thus in eight quarters played, Eldorado scored 13 points in each of four, 15 points in each of three others. In the final frame against Anna the Eagles hit the high mark, with 18 points.

Coach Al Adams used only seven players throughout the meet and all broke into the scoring column. Mackovjak with 34 points led the Eagle scoring. Other point makers were McRoy 22, Smith 19, Long 14, Omohundro 12, Cochran 9 and Whittier 4.

Eldorado was champion all the way. In addition to winning on the floor the Eagles also traveled first class. The squad, accompanied by Principal W. A. Knoop and coaches Adams, Leonard and Haile, went to Cairo early in the afternoon of the first day of the meet and didn't return until after the final game. They had reservations at the Hotel Cairo. It is reported the boys really enjoyed this part of the program.

Dwight Barfield, a tall, husky boy from Metropolis, was tourney scoring champion with a total of 48 points. He scored 20 in a losing effort against Eldorado then racked up 28 more in the consolation game against Cairo.

Eldorado will be host to the four-team meet next season. The exact date hasn't been set, but Coach Adams stated yesterday it probably would be the last week in December, with Dec. 30 and 31 the most likely dates. The meet was set up on a four year basis with the schools to play host in alphabetical order. Last year it was at Anna, this year at Cairo, next comes Eldorado, then Metropolis.

Before launching into the post-holiday basketball wars, something should be said, too, about the Ridgway Invitational tournament. Elkville's rangy Bluebirds packed home the championship trophy, eliminating Rosiclare, Shawneetown and Christopher en route to the title. Both Shawneetown and Christopher gave the champs a bad time for three quarters before bowing to Elkville's strong fourth period finishes.

Although Elkville took home the team title, Christopher's Robert Kirkemeyer walked away with the individual scoring honors. Kirkemeyer, called by Ridgway's Coach Al Penman "one of the best players I've seen this season," piled up 78 points in the three games for a game average of 26 points. Kirkemeyer scored 32 against Cave-in-Rock, 23 against both Ridgway and Elkville.

Host Ridgway became the favorite of the fans after their upset victory over Pope County high. They almost fashioned a rally in the Christopher game that overcame the Orange and Blue cagers, and of course, gave Shawneetown a terrific battle for consolation honors. Ridgway school officials once again handled the tournament in a fine and commendable manner. The decorations showed considerable work. We did miss one thing, however, and that was the presence of a band this year.

Here's our All-Tourney team and honorable mention list, followed by the leading scorers:

ALL-TOURNEY TEAM

Coach Calufetti Revises Bull Dog Varsity Squad

Locals Play at Centralia Friday; Marion Here Saturday

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs this week worked in preparation for a tough week-end schedule which sees them meet Centralia there Friday night and Marion here the following evening.

Centralia currently is ranked No. 4 in the state and Marion No. 14, which gives the Bull Dogs quite a bit of opposition.

Coach Lawrence Calufetti yesterday revised his varsity, keeping only two seniors, Richard Gidcomb and Ronnie Riegel, on his 10-man varsity squad.

The new varsity has four juniors and four sophomores. Juniors are Don Price, Gerald Wesson, Dave Harrison and Charles Polk. Sophomores are Dave Anglin, Ronnie Williams, John Wilson and Tony Beal.

Last night in practice Calufetti worked a first five consisting of Wesson at center, Harrison and Anglin at forwards, and Riegel and Gidcomb at guards. That put Wilson at center, Beal and Williams at forwards and Polk and Price at guards on the second five.

Bill Cady has charge of the freshman-sophomore team and John VanderPluym will direct the freshman aggregation.

Mt. Vernon is 4th, Centralia 5th in Ratings

SPRINGFIELD (AP) — La Grange was ranked the top prep basketball team in Illinois again today in spite of its one-point loss to Moline Saturday night.

Eleven of the 15 members of the United Press board of coaches rated La Grange the state's No. 1 team, the other four favoring Moline. It was the third straight time La Grange topped the ratings.

No member of the board listed La Grange lower than second place. The Lions got 221 points out of a possible 225, while Moline got 197.

Seven of the coaches thought Moline rated below second, two placing the Quad-City team as low as sixth.

Mt. Vernon Third
Mount Vernon's Rams (10-1), idle since absorbing their lone defeat from Edwardsville in tournament play before Christmas, were rated the state's third best team. Mount Vernon ranked second, just above Moline, before the holidays.

Centralia, surprise winner of its own holiday tourney, jumped from ninth place to fourth.

Once-beaten Pinckneyville, with 12 wins, slipped from fourth to fifth place. Pinckneyville has won 42 in a row on its home floor and needs two more victories there to tie Quincy's record of 44.

Edwardsville (11-1), conquerors of Mount Vernon and loser only to Pinckneyville, was listed sixth. Quincy, which lost its first to Pinckneyville in the Centralia tourney, was No. 7. Edwardsville was No. 5 and Quincy No. 6 before the holidays.

Marion is 14th
The coaches moved Rockford East up four places into a ninth place tie with Litchfield. Litchfield slipped one notch. Rockford East beat Elgin, Kenosha, Wis., and Clinton, Iowa, while Litchfield grabbed third place in the Centralia tourney since the pre-holiday ratings.

Hillsboro, winner of the Pontiac tournament and beaten only by Litchfield, climbed from 15th to 11th. Collinsville's Kahoks slid to the 12th spot, while once-beaten Ottawa was No. 13.

Marion skidded from 10th to 14th. Wood River and Rockford West tied for 15th.

Out of the select 15 went Thornwood of Harvey and Mount Carmel. The newcomers were Wood River, Rockford West and Ottawa.

Sports Writers Give Low-Down on Majors' Big Shots

In a confidential poll of more than 100 writers who cover major league teams, The Sporting News has given the nation's fans an informative insight into the public and private lives of the Yankees, players — and it's straight from the shoulder!

The scribes were asked to evaluate the stars on 44 different counts ranging from mechanical skill and team value through living habits and personalities. Under the cloak of anonymity, none of the writers pulled his punches.

Who are the most temperamental players, the least friendly to fans and the press, the most cooperative, the most generous, and the least, the most conceited, the most serious-minded? The poll names names on all these, and more.

Here are the stars viewed by the writers in The Sporting News poll as being the most temperamental, National League — Russ Meyer, Dodgers; Eddie Mathews, Braves;

Kentucky, Indiana, Kansas And Illinois Escape Defeat by Narrow Margins

NEW YORK (AP) — Five of the nation's highest-ranked basketball teams, including top-ranked Kentucky and second-ranked Indiana, could have a collective sigh of relief today at their narrow escapes from defeat.

The five — Kentucky, Indiana, Kansas, Illinois, and Navy — all managed to win Monday, but their victory margins ranged from only one point to six.

In contrast to their troubles, third-ranked Duquesne equalled the best perfect record among the nation's major colleges, 12-0, by trouncing Dayton, 70-52, and 13th-ranked Duke coasted to an 89-69 victory over South Carolina.

Unbeaten Kentucky almost blew an 18-point lead before scoring its eighth victory, 77-71, over Xavier of Ohio; Indiana had to stall in the last minute to beat Wisconsin, 67-66; eighth-ranked Kansas wasted most of a 17-point lead before downing Oklahoma, 76-72; ninth-ranked Illinois came from behind to nip Northwestern, 66-65; and 18th-ranked Navy beat Princeton on a sub's last-minute basket, 67-66.

Schlundt Scores 29 Points
Xavier, beaten, 81-66, by Kentucky in an earlier meeting, seemed in for an even worse beating when it trailed by 18 points in the third period. But a spirited drive cut the margin to 61-54 at the end of the third period and the underdogs held the nation's No. 1 team even for the fourth period. Cliff Hagan led Kentucky with 20 points and teammate Lou Tsioropoulos had 18, the same total posted by Xavier's Bob Heim. It was Kentucky's narrowest margin of the year.

Indiana led by 14 points during the third period and then was tied early in the fourth period. The final minute found the Hoosiers freezing to protect a two-point margin until Bob Leonard added a clinching free throw. Indiana's Don

College Big Three—Kentucky, Indiana, Duquesne

NEW YORK (AP)—College basketball's Big Three—Kentucky, Indiana and Duquesne—continued to lead the United Press ratings in that order today, but there were four newcomers in the nation's top 10 teams.

Holy Cross, Western Kentucky, Kansas and Rice moved into the select group as Oregon State, North Carolina State, Fordham and Brigham Young dropped out.

Coach Adolph Rupp's Wildcats, winners of seven straight this season, received 22 first place votes in the 35 outstanding coaches who make up the United Press Rating Board and a total of 329 points. But both second place Indiana and third place Duquesne gained ground in the point totals over last week.

Indiana, which has won seven of its eight starts, received five first place votes and 287 points while Duquesne, on a 11 game winning streak, received six first place votes and 285 points. Over last week, Indiana picked up six points on Kentucky, Duquesne 22.

Minnesota Fifth
Oklahoma A & M, with a 12-1 record, received the only two first votes not going to the top three and jumped from fifth to fourth place with 224 points while Minnesota, winner of eight out of nine, also advanced ahead, from sixth to fifth, with 166 points.

Holy Cross, with eight consecutive victories, made the biggest advance of the week, jumping from 16th to sixth place. Western Kentucky, with the season's best winning streak—12 straight—advanced from 11th to seventh place.

Kansas jumped from a tie for 21st place last week to eighth place while Illinois dropped from seventh to ninth and Rice advanced from 14th to 10th.

Oregon State dropped from fourth to 11th after losing two games in the Dixie Classic last week; North Carolina State fell from eighth to a tie for 16th; Fordham from ninth to 21st and Brigham Young from 10th to a tie for 26th place.

Following Oregon State in the second 10 are Louisiana State, Duke, Niagara, UCLA, LaSalle and N. C. State (tied for 16th place), Navy, Oklahoma City and California in that order.

Ridley Scores in Final Seconds

Northwestern missed a chance to tie Illinois when Harold Grant missed one of two free throws with two seconds left. Northwestern had come back from 14 points behind to lead at halftime, 29-28. At the end, a field goal and a free throw by Bill Ridley in the last 80 seconds proved decisive for Illinois. John Kerr led Illinois with 27 points.

Princeton rallied from a nine-point halftime deficit to lead Navy in the final minute until Middle sub Bill Slattery stole the ball and scored with 10 seconds remaining. Duquesne was held to a 28-23 halftime margin by Dayton but then blew its game at Pittsburgh wide open in the third quarter, a frame in which Dick Ricketts scored 13 points. Ricketts was the Ducks' top scorer with 24 points. The victory enabled Duquesne to match the perfect 12-0 mark owned by Western Kentucky, the nation's No. 7 team, but Western gets the chance to take the lead again by beating Middle Tennessee State tonight.

Bevo Scores 38 Points
In other leading games Monday night: Fordham ran its record to 8-1 with an 87-60 rout of NYU; Michigan couldn't stop Paul Ebert, who scored 35 points, but still beat Ohio State, 85-76; Little Salem College couldn't stop Bevo Francis, who scored 38, but did upset Rio Grande, 100-96; Bob Hodgson's field goal in overtime gave Wichita a 77-75 win over Detroit; Bob Bumby's 22 points led Drake to a 92-83 win over Loyola (Ill.); Colorado beat Missouri for the first time in 18 meetings, 66-62; Clemson edged William and Mary, 75-72; Maryland downed Richmond, 72-64; Nebraska trounced Iowa State, 74-60; Iowa blasted Michigan State, 73-63; Wyoming routed New Mexico, 81-61; and Utah defeated Utah State, 71-58.

Kean (R-N.J.) warned that the social security program will go bankrupt if Congress wipes out the boost in tax rates that went into effect Jan. 1. He made the statement after Sen. ## President to Face Test if He Fights Tax Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Key members of Congress said today that President Eisenhower's leadership will get a severe test if he tries to fight a congressional move to vote new tax cuts in this election year.

They made the statement after Rep. Daniel A. Reed (R-N.Y.) announced that his Ways and Means Committee is giving top priority to proposals which would cost the government an estimated 1½-billion dollars a year in taxes.

He called the group into session Monday to consider a proposed major overhaul of the tax system that would bring tax benefits to working mothers, corporations, parents with income-earning dependents and taxpayers with heavy medical bills.

President Eisenhower has not revealed the tax recommendations he will make in a special message to Congress. But he has made it plain he is opposed to any proposals that would put new dents in the government's revenue.

Byrd Challenges President

Reed and Mr. Eisenhower clashed head-on last year over Reed's bid to cut personal income taxes in mid-1953 instead of last Jan. 1. The President won then but observers refused to predict the outcome of a new wrangle if Congressmen are forced to choose between the President and election-year tax cuts.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) warned in an interview today that it is difficult to stop the spread of tax reductions once they are started. He challenged the President to present a balanced budget when he sends Congress his budget message this month.

Byrd spoke out in the face of clear evidence from the administration that Mr. Eisenhower has no hope of balancing the budget in fiscal 1955 beginning next July 1.

Byrd described fiscal 1955 as "the critical year on the deficit." "If we're to come near balancing the budget," he said, "it's got to

HOLLYWOOD! TODAY!

MOVIES - TV - RADIO
by Erskine Johnson

LAS VEGAS—(NEA)—Now that Marlene Dietrich's revealed glory at the Hotel Sahara here has titillated the world, started a business panic in the brasserie-manufacturing industry, and stumped Jane Russell, Marilyn Monroe and Marie Wilson in the what-do-we-do-next-for-publicity-department, the big inside can be told on the nitery debut of the sculpted, younger-than-springtime grandma.

These are side angles and gags, too.

It's all because of Tallulah Bankhead, la Dietrich's one-time bitter enemy but now her pal, that the 53-year-old dazler let herself be baited into facing dice rollers, slot-machine wrestlers and the frankly curious for a record $90,000 for three weeks.

Come to think of it, that's more than any other woman in history, including Elinor Glynn, has ever made out of three weeks.

Anyhow, the Venus they called "Legs" Dietrich until the unveiling in Las Vegas is said to have accepted the $30,000 per week as a good-business deal and also because it makes Tallulah's $20,000 per week at the Sands Hotel last summer look like chicken feed.

SHE DID SOME HEAD WORK

Marlene was in Tallulah's audience every night last summer thinking up new ways to top the Alabama belle.

Their duel may be "Friendship, Friendship" and they may be great pals, but there's still plenty of professional jealousy.

It's one of those "Anything-You-Can-Do-I-Can-Do-Better" things, with Marlene currently holding a full house.

And now it can be told, too, with Marlene's stunt making headlines, that the boys in the Cinerama backroom will have aspirins, tons of 'em.

Cinerama executives asked Marlene how much she wanted in salary for singing eight bars of "Falling in Love Again" for the new "Thrills of the World" feature movie they are making as a follow-up to "This Is Cinerama."

One sequence features Las Vegas and the big cameras wanted to take a peek at Marlene on the Sahara stage.

Marlene sighed and said she thought $25,000 might be satisfactory.

Cinerama moguls offered $8000 and Marlene said "No."

Now the boys in the Cinerama backroom are sorry. They still may get together, though.

It isn't the first time Marlene showed off just about everything.

Back in 1933, she was accused of nudity when Paramount released the movie, "Song of Songs." There was a "nekkid" statue that was supposed to be Marlene in the picture. It was. Explained Marlene: "It's art."

SHE STILL LIKES TV

Marlene has said "Nein, nein, nein" to TV offers for years, but that doesn't mean she's not daffy about the home screens on which her daughter, Maria Riva, has found stardom.

She intends to plunge into TV eventually. She told me: "What's the hurry?" she says. "There's plenty of time. I love television. Hollywood had better get into it soon. I don't understand people in Hollywood. When you talk to them about television they pretend not to know what you're talking about."

Why hasn't Marlene Dietrich faced a Hollywood movie camera since she made "Rancho Notorious" two years ago?

"Because the stories offered to me are too uninteresting," she tells me. "Hollywood is so muddled, so

Officers Installed By Arrow Lodge

William Roberts was installed as noble grand of Arrow Lodge No. 386, I. O. O. F., at the installation ceremony held by the lodge last night.

Other officers installed were: James Suver, vice grand; George Myers Jr., chaplain; Charles D. Barrett, recording secretary; James Ford, treasurer; Ray Johnson, financial secretary; M. C. Shell, lodge deputy; Charles Pier-son, warden; William Douglas, conductor.

M. C. Shell, right supporter of the noble grand; Leslie Roberts, left supporter of the noble grand; Eusebio Johnson, right supporter of the vice grand; Walter Hick, man, left supporter of the vice grand; Everett Carter, inside guardian; Tommy Partain, outside guardian; George Lindenmuth, right scene supporter; Louis Gall, left scene supporter; Charles D. Barrett, degree captain.

let Hollywood get straightened out first.

June Allyson, looking back on the pictures she made with Van Johnson at MGM:

"Every time there was an indifferent script, they'd say, 'All right, give it to Van and June. They'll put it out.' We wouldn't have minded being a team if the pictures had been good. As it was, we got progressively unhappier about being co-starred."

FEUD: There's a big chill on between John Steinbeck and Zachary Scott, but it's not over Elaine, the star's ex-wife who married the author. Scott just told Steinbeck to his face that he didn't like his new novel, "East of Eden."

Peggy Lee, often rumored feuding with Doris Day, watched her nine-year-old daughter Nicki playing movie star with some other members of a movie set the other day. Nicki insisted on being Doris Day.
